

Sir Bob Geldof and girlfriend Jeanne Marine check in to the after-show party at the Waldorf

Legal eagles: The show's stars Alex Gaumond, Sheridan Smith, Jill Halfpenny and Duncan James

Blondes have more fun: Actress and model Britt Ekland

DIARY OF THE WEEK

Co-ordinated by Sophia Beddow
Photos by Dominic O'Neill

THE SONG ARM OF THE LAW

After the opening night of Legally Blonde the Musical, the cast of the West End show held court at the Waldorf Hilton for an exclusive after-party. Among the VIP invitees called to the bar at the London hotel were Sir Bob Geldof, former Dr Who David Tennant and TV presenter Graham Norton. As the champagne flowed, the guests delivered their verdict on the show and judged it to be a hit, particularly in the case of actress Sheridan Smith, whose appealing performance as Elle Woods in the lead role earned her a standing ovation.

Actress Claire Sweeney joins the cast of partygoers at the Waldorf

Who goes there? Former Time Lord David Tennant

In the pink: Chatshow host and La Cage Aux Folles star Graham Norton