

Reviews
Extra!

LEGALLY BLONDE: THE MUSICAL Our verdict!

LAURA ATKINSON
WENT TO THE
FIRST NIGHT AND HERE'S WHAT SHE THOUGHT...

We are massive Legally Blonde fans – so when we heard that there was a musical stage version in production, we had our doubts. How could anyone be as good as our beloved Reese Witherspoon? Well, we take it all back now – because Sheridan Smith, in the title role of Elle, is amazing. Literally, stand-on-your-seat-screaming amazing (and yes, that's just what we did). The script is brilliantly funny, with a fantastic support cast (hello, Duncan James and Jill Halfpenny) and songs like Gay Or European? We're already planning our return visit, so we're looking forward to more celeb sightings: we spotted David Tennant, Graham Norton and Sir Bob Geldof in the audience. It's heavily booked up, so beg/steal/disguise yourself as Elle's dog... just make sure you see it.

