We take you behind the scenes at this week's hottest parties

Get your skates on!

Never mind the red carpet – a hot pink version set the theme for all things Legally Blonde when a host of celebs turned up to watch the hit musical at London's Savoy Theatre last week.

Dancing On Ice's Gary Lucy confessed: 'I'm really not much of a dancer! I can keep my balance on the ice, and from the legs down I'm fine, but my partner Maria is having to do some serious work to get me grooving.'

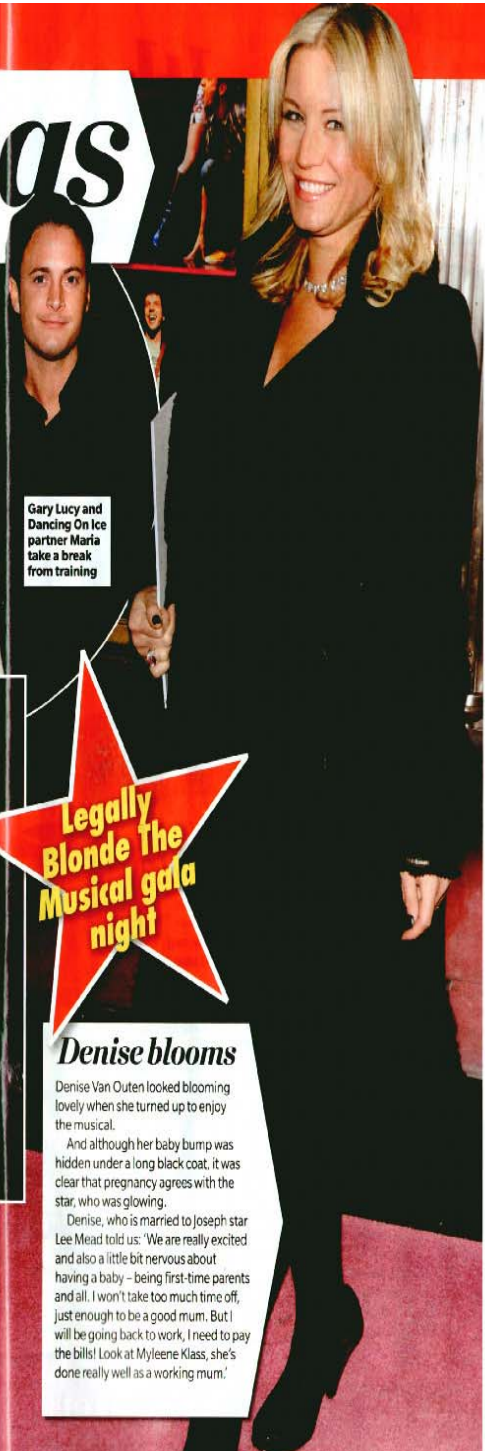

The afterparty was held at the glamorous Waldorf Hotel, where the likes of Bob Geldof and Angela Griffin tucked into sushi and mini bottles of pink champagne, and we chatted to Dancing On Ice judge Jason Gardiner.

Honest as always, Jason admitted: 'I was really surprised by Heather Mills when we first met – I didn't think I'd like her at all but she's actually very nice.'

'After my comments to Tana Ramsay, I spotted Gordon heading my way with a face like thunder. I thought he was going to have a go at me, but he shook my hand and said he likes the way I'm honest. That was a relief!'

Legally Blonde The Musical gala night

Denise blooms

Denise Van Outen looked blooming lovely when she turned up to enjoy the musical.

And although her baby bump was hidden under a long black coat, it was clear that pregnancy agrees with the star, who was glowing.

Denise, who is married to Joseph star Lee Mead told us: 'We are really excited and also a little bit nervous about having a baby – being first-time parents and all. I won't take too much time off, just enough to be a good mum. But I will be going back to work, I need to pay the bills! Look at Myleene Klass, she's done really well as a working mum.'

Simon wouldn't let go of his souvenir programme!

Blue boys Antony Costa and Simon Webbe turned up to support bandmate Duncan James as he took to the stage. Antony told us: 'Duncan's doing an amazing job – I'm really proud of him.'

Our Hannah chats with a thrilled Lucie

'Danni's going to be an amazing mum'

X Factor's Lucie Jones was in high spirits at the bash, as she confessed that being a brunette doesn't mean she escapes the blonde moments: 'I have them all the time,' she giggled. 'I forget where I put my keys, everything.'

And as for mentor Danni Minogue's pregnancy news, Lucie is thrilled: 'I was so excited when Danni told me. She's going to be an amazing mum, and her boyfriend Kris will be a great dad too. I'm looking for a place in London near to Danni's house, we speak loads and I'd really like to be close to her and hang out with her little one when it arrives!'
